BURKE MEMORIAL PRIZE

The Department of Education currently administers a number of trust funds from which the payment of an annual prize is made out of the income generated by each particular fund. Among these is the Burke Fund which was established in 1883 as a memorial to Thomas Henry Burke, Under Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, who was murdered, along with Lord Frederick Cavendish, Chief Secretary for Ireland, while walking in Phoenix Park, Dublin in 1882.

The Burke Memorial Prize is given to the best answerer in GCSE examinations taken in Northern Ireland. The Department will make an award annually in October on the basis of results obtained in the June 2007 examinations.

This year's prize will be an award of £150 for the best performance at GCSE in the Summer 2007 examinations. Candidates taking examinations in Northern Ireland with any UK awarding body are eligible to apply but it is the responsibility of any pupil who wishes to be considered for the prize to submit an application to the Department. The closing date for applications is Friday 28 September 2007 and candidates must include a copy of all their GCSE results slips with the application.

I would be grateful if you could draw the Burke Memorial Prize to the attention of pupils in your school about to sit their GCSE exams. A letter and application form are attached, together with a full list of the current terms and conditions of the prize, and I would be grateful if you could issue copies of these to eligible pupils. The documentation is also available on the Department's website at www.deni.gov.uk

If you have any queries regarding the prize, please contact Mrs Kirstin Martin in Curriculum and Assessment Team at the Department, e-mail kirstin.martin@deni.gov.uk or telephone 028 91 279636.
